ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

On July 6, 2012, the Court heard Defendants' Motion for Protective Order. After consideration of the Motion and the Response and the arguments of counsel, the Court GRANTS Defendants' Motion for Protective Order. Further:

1. Defendants produced to Plaintiffs the relevant Tables of Contents for Vanderbilt University ("Vanderbilt") policies. Plaintiffs may request specific policies from Defendants. Defendants will endeavor to produce the requested policies as they existed on November 1, 2008. If Defendants cannot produce the requested policies as they existed on November 1, 2008, Defendants will produce the current versions of the requested policies to Plaintiffs.

2. Provided Vanderbilt possesses the capability to do so, Plaintiffs may request that Vanderbilt conduct an electronic search for specific words (to be designated by Plaintiffs) located within Vanderbilt policies.

3. By August 6, 2012, Defendants will produce an attestation to Plaintiffs to the effect, if accurate, that: (a.) both the electronic version of a patient's Vanderbilt medical record and Star Panel contain the same underlying medical information regarding the patient; and (b.) Star Panel reflects whether amendments were made to a patient's medical record, the amendments that were actually made, the date and time of the amendments, and the individual(s) who made the amendments. If such attestation is provided, Plaintiffs shall not be entitled to receive metadata from Vanderbilt absent a showing of good cause.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
